HAWAII'S REPRESENTATIVE AT ANNAPOLIS.

Midshipman Samuel Wilder King, Hawaii's naval academy representative, who graduates next June.

In June, 1910, Samuel Wilder King, Hawaii's midshipman at the naval academy at Annapolis, will graduate and enter upon a two-years' sea-service to qualify for the rank of ensign. Midshipman Wilder entered the naval academy in 1905. He lost a year through having slipped up on some of his examinations but has pulled through and this year is a cadet officer in the graduating class and assistant editor of the 1910 Lucky Bag, the naval academy annual, which is one of the handsomest publications issued by any college or university. Midshipman King is a Honolulu boy.

AMUSEMENTS

Bengough.

Bengough, the famous Canadian cartoonist and humorist, will appear at the opera-house next week. He is probably the most versatile artist on the concert platform, for he combines in himself the clever cartoonist and the humorous singer, mimic and storyteller. He is reputed to draw pictures as fast as he talks, and as cleverly, which is saying a great deal. The charm of his entertainment is said to be its unexpectedness, as anyone may be picked out from the audience and reproduced with startling truth upon the stage. Altogether, his entertainment is a distinct novelty. Bengough is assisted by Borneo Gardiner, the unique whistler; Claude Allan, baritone, and Dora Carroll, pianist. Borneo Gardiner's whistling solos add greatly to the novelty and charm of the entertainment. The Otago Daily Times, of Dunedin, comments, "Next to Bengough, the brilliant talker and imitable cartoonist, the star of the combination is Borneo Gardiner, a whistler. Not for years has there been heard locally a siffleur so absolutely a master of the art. His rendering of the 'Mocking Bird' was a revelation of what the common troublesome whistler may aspire to." Tickets will be on sale at Bergstrom's on Tuesday morning.

The Park Theater.

Manager Congdon offers as a special vaudeville attraction this week at the Park Theater the two Vernes, who made such a good impression on the audiences at the opera-house two weeks ago. These men are in for comedy stunts, songs and dances. That they dance well is admitted by all who attended the Armstrong and Verne performances at the opera-house. The little girls are also down for a new song for tomorrow night, and, with the addition of the motion pictures, it will be a program quite worth while. The feature film is called, "The Child's Prayer." It is said to be a particularly good film in spots, points of excellence in the film making up for any deficiencies in the story. If not always plausible, the story is a pleasing one, telling of a contract given to a fisherman and the jealousy of another. An abduction and a man being set adrift in a small boat furnish a bit of excitement that causes the small boys to wonder. The program throughout is particularly good.

Waverley Club Dance.

There has been a change in the character of the Waverley club dances recently, and the affairs are more generally patronized since there has been a wedding out. Manager Nainoa says he is giving the people what they want and is furnishing a means for some young Hawaiians to add to their incomes by becoming expert musicians. He will allow no disorderly characters in the hall, and maintains a discipline that insures a good time to those who wish an occasional dance. The Kawaihau quintet club furnishes music for the club dances, and it goes without further remark that there is none better in Honolulu. Admission to the hall is merely nominal, and the cost per dance so small as to be not worth mentioning.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Large sums of money are no doubt realized from simple speculation, but the great fortunes are derived from legitimate and honest business—where the goods furnished are worth the price they bring. Certain famous business men have accumulated their millions wholly in this way. Prompt and faithful in every contract or engagement they enjoy the confidence of the public and command a class of trade that is refused to unstable or tricky competitors. In the long run it does not pay to cheat or deceive others. A hambug may be advertised with a noise like the blowing of a thousand trumpets, but it is soon detected and exposed. The manufacturers of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have always acted on very different principles. Before offering it to the public they first made sure of its merits. Then, and then only, did its name appear in print. People were assured of what it would do, and found the statement truthful. To-day they believe in it as we all believe in the word of a tried and trusted friend. It is palatable as honey and contains all the curative properties of pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It aids digestion, drives impurities from the blood, and is effective in Anemia, Debility, Lung Troubles, Influenza, and all Wasting Complaints. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil in a most palatable form." It is a scientific remedy and a food with a delicious taste and flavor. One bottle convinces. Sold by chemists.
